

TICKETING FAQS

When do tickets go on sale?

Tickets will go on sale exclusively to England Netball individual, independent and social members first, then to the Netball World Cup 2019 family – including those who have registered for our email updates and our event partners – before they go on general sale in September 2018.

10am Tuesday 3 July 2018 – 11:59pm Thursday 12 July 2018: Tickets on sale to England Netball members

17 – 27 July 2018: Tickets on sale to Netball World Cup 2019 family and event partners – register now

19 September 2018: Tickets on general sale

How can I access the England Netball member pre-sale?

The England Netball member pre-sale (3-12 July 2018) is open to affiliated individual, independent and social members of England Netball.

If you are already a member of England Netball you will receive an email from them in advance of the pre-sale explaining how you can access the pre-sale. You will need to make sure your email address is up-to-date with England Netball and your affiliation number will be required to purchase your tickets.

Please note that receiving emails from Netball World Cup 2019 does not mean you will receive your email from England Netball as these are two separate organisations. If you do not normally receive emails from England Netball but you are an England Netball member please contact the England Netball customer services team for assistance on 01509 277 850.

If you are not already a member of England Netball, further information about joining is available here.

An allocation of tickets will be available for every session and in every seating category at every stage of ticket sales.

How can I access the NWC2019 family member pre-sale?

You can access the NWC2019 family pre-sale (17-27 July 2018) by signing up on the event website at nwc2019.co.uk/register

An allocation of tickets will be available for every session and in every seating category at every stage of ticket sales.

Will there still be tickets left for every session when they go on general sale?

Yes, an allocation of tickets will be available in every seating category for every session at each on-sale phase.

Where can I buy tickets?

Tickets for the Netball World Cup 2019 are only available from our authorised retailers:

- Ticket Quarter
- Echo Arena Liverpool Box Office
- See Tickets
- Gullivers Sports Travel \(fan packages\)
- Official Overseas Travel Agents (Australia and New Zealand fan packages) - Events Worldwide (Aus), Sportsnet (Aus), Williments (NZ), House of Travel (NZ)

Please be aware that tickets purchased or sold outside of authorised retailers will not be valid.

How much will tickets cost?

There will be a range of tickets available across the 20 sessions, including gold, silver and bronze category tickets, based on the location of the seat (proximity to and view of the court).

Adult and junior prices will be available with tickets starting from just £10 for adults and £5 for children.

The range of prices for each stage of the competition is available here.

Seating category maps:

Two-court layout \(12-15 July 2019\)

One-court layout \(16-21 July 2019\)

Are there reduced prices for children?

Junior tickets are available in the silver and bronze categories for people who will be under 18 on the date they attend the event.

Children under 14 on the date they attend the event will need to be accompanied by an adult over the age of 18.

Children under two years old on the date they attend the event do not need a ticket, as long as they do not take up a seat.

Proof of eligibility may be requested when you attend the event.

Are accessible tickets available?

Echo Arena Liverpool is a fully accessible venue, and if you purchase a ticket and require a companion to accompany you, we are happy to offer them a complimentary ticket. One piece of the following documentation, valid at the time of attending the event, is required for eligibility:

- Disability Living Allowance
- Personal Independence Payment (PIP)
- Attendance Allowance
- Personal Independence Allowance
- A certificate of visual impairment
- Official / Documented evidence that I am registered as severely sight impaired (blind)
- UK-recognised identification for an assistance dog

To book your tickets, or for more information about the ACC Personal Assistance scheme, please call the Customer Care team on 0344 335 0437. Proof of eligibility may be requested when you attend the event.

How many tickets can I buy?

You will be able to buy a maximum of 10 tickets per session when purchasing online and you will be able to buy tickets for multiple sessions in one transaction.

Can I buy group tickets?

If you are planning to come in a group or with your netball club and want to buy more than 10 tickets per session you can book with our official ticket agent, Ticket Quarter:

groups@ticketquarter.co.uk

0344 561 7672 Monday - Saturday: 9am - 9pm

 Sunday: 10am - 5pm

You will be asked to provide details of your club/organisation when you make your booking.

Ticket Quarter offer flexible payment options including credit/debit cards, cheque, cash (in person at the ACC Box Office only), BACs, PayPal and international payments.

Groups may reserve their tickets for four weeks before payment of the balance is required.

Can I bring a school group?

School groups can book tickets through the group booking service provided by Ticket Quarter. Please see above for details of how contact Ticket Quarter group booking services.

How many matches are in a session?

Tickets will be sold in sessions, with two sessions taking place every day. Each session will feature at least two matches.

There will be two courts in the arena for the first four days of the competition (12-15 July), with games being played simultaneously. You will be able to choose tickets for court one or court two when you are making your purchase.

The courts are not separated by a physical barrier so it will be possible to see the match taking place on the alternative court from some seats, however this is not guaranteed.

How do I know which teams will be playing when?

The current competition schedule can be found here.

The competition schedule will be updated on 2 July when the latest INF world rankings are announced and the automatic qualifiers for the tournament are confirmed, alongside England who have already qualified as host nation. After this update, the Preliminaries Stage One matches featuring these six teams will be confirmed.

The full competition schedule for Preliminaries Stage One will be announced in September 2018, once the final list of qualified teams has been confirmed through the regional qualifying events. Preliminaries Stage Two matches will be dependent on Preliminaries Stage One results.

How do I get to see the opening ceremony?

The opening ceremony will take place within session two on Friday 12 July 2019 and will be included in tickets bought for this session for both court one and court two.

What hospitality is available and when will it be on sale?

A variety of hospitality options are available, which can be purchased along with your tickets on the following dates:

3 - 12 July 2018: England Netball members

17 - 27 July 2018: Netball World Cup 2019 family

19 September 2018: General sale

NETBALL
